

among other things. Further, Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law and will suffer irreparable harm if the Temporary Restraining Order is not granted.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court issue a Temporary Restraining Order restraining and enjoining Defendants from:

1. Defendants and their agents, servicers, and employees and those acting in active concert or participation with any of them are enjoined from making any and all publication or republication of the Defamatory Statements or any defamatory statements regarding Mr. Reed allegedly committing any criminal act of domestic violence. Publication and/or republication includes communication made via social media, videos, postings, verbally, and in writing;
2. Defendants and their agents, servicers, and employees and those acting in active concert or participation with any of them are enjoined from continuing their acts of defamation per se of Mr. Reed and falsely stating and inferring that Mr. Reed “beats women” or has committed an act of domestic violence;
3. Defendants and their agents, servicers, and employees and those acting in active concert or participation with any of them are ordered to withdraw their published defamatory statements, including those that have published via video recording; and
4. Defendants and their agents, servicers, and employees and those acting in active concert or participation with any of them are ordered to issue a public and express retraction of the statements in every social media and media method Defendants used to disseminate the defamatory statements.

The restraining order is effective immediately and shall continue in full force and effect until further order of this court or until it expires by operation of law. This order shall be binding on Defendants and their agents, servicers, attorneys, employees, and those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this order by personal service or otherwise.

The Court hereby sets a hearing on the merits of Plaintiff's Application for Temporary Injunction for the 25th day of Feb 2020 commencing at 1:00 p.m.

The bond will set at $ 100.00
